

Psychic Power Spells

Day Awakening

To cast, simply recite the spell with the full weight of your energy & intention behind the effort. You can recite out loud, or through telepathy (your mind).

If you feel you need candles or other draws like incense or stones please use them if they make you feel in the appropriate state of mind.

Or if you'd like to bind the energies of the spell to a stone for boosting purposes use these instructions with a candle:

Pass the rock over the flame three times after the spell is recited.

Keep the rock near you to have the spell surround you.

You can use the spell as much as you like!

Day Awakening

Burst forth the sun, her billowing rays

Send her blessing of revealing

The day and its secrets uncovered through her

The visions of what once has happened

Of what will come to pass

For myself and those whom I seek divination for

Grant me the visions of day

Through waking dream show me

The past, present and future.
